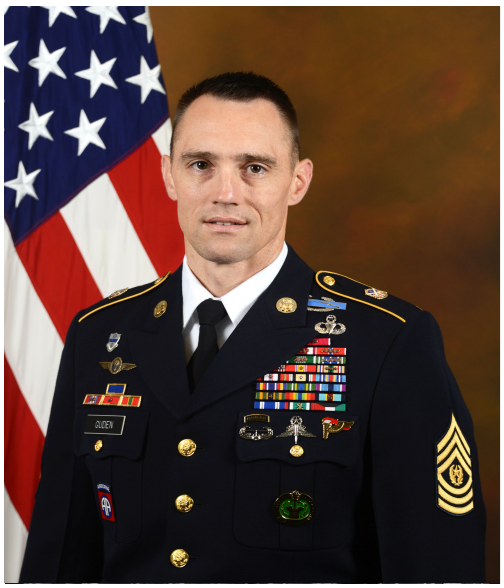
Command Sergeant Major

Joint Force Headquarters-National Capital Region
The U.S. Army Military District of Washington

Guardian of the Nation's Capital



Command Sergeant Major Timothy A. Guden

Command Sergeant Major Timothy A. Guden was born and raised in north-central Wisconsin. He enlisted in the United States Army on July 28, 1987 and attended Basic Combat Training at Fort Jackson, SC. He has held numerous leadership positions ranging from team leader to brigade command sergeant major in signal, cavalary and aviation, intelligence, armor and infantry units. As a nominative-level Command Sergeant Major, Maneuver Center of Excellence and Fort Benning, Georgia from March 2014 to May 2015 and prior to that as the Command Sergeant Major, United States Army Infantry School from August 2012 to March 2014.

As a nominative-level Command Sergeant Major, Maneuver Center of Excellence and Fort Benning, Georgia from March 2014 to May 2015 and prior to that as the Command Sergeant Major, United States Army Infantry School from August 2012 to March 2014. Most recently, he was selected and currently serves as the Command Sergeant Major, Joint Force Headquarters-National Capital Region and the US Army Military District of Washington.

CSM Guden has held two year-long overseas assignments in both Korea and Panama. Stateside, he has held assignments at Fort Bragg, Fort Jackson, Fort Bliss, Fort Hood and Fort Benning. His combat deployments include four tours in Iraq, one tour in Afghanistan and one tour in the Persian Gulf in support of Operations Desert Shield/Desert Storm. CSM Guden has attended the Battle Staff Course, the First Sergeant Course, and the Drill Sergeant Course along with all levels of NCO Professional Military Education.

His awards and decorations include the Presidential Unit Citation, the Valorous Unit Award (with one oak leaf cluster), the Meritorious Unit Award, the Army Superior Unit Award, both the Expert and Combat Infantryman Badges and the Ranger Tab.