One or more reports from consumer reporting agencies may be obtained for employment purposes pursuant to the Fair Credit Reporting Act, codified at 15 U.S.C. § 1681 et seq.

Purpose

The Federal government requires information from one or more consumer reporting agencies in order to obtain information in connection with a background investigation, reinvestigation, or ongoing evaluation (i.e. continuous evaluation) of eligibility for access to classified information, or when applicable, eligibility to hold a national security sensitive position. The information obtained may be disclosed to other Federal agencies for the above purposes in fulfillment of official responsibilities to the extent that such disclosure is permitted by law.
